

2019 Adirondack Balloon Festival

The Adirondack Balloon Festival began in 1972 by the “the Biggest Kid at the Balloon Festival” and for over 40 years hot air balloonists from across the United States, as well as internationally based pilots, have attended for the awe-inspiring views of the Southern Adirondacks. The Festival features a wide variety of hot air balloons including special shapes, an array of colors and decorations, as they take to the sky!
