Belmont Race Track

Elmont, New York

Belmont has been the stage for many of racing's greatest legends, from Man O'War to Curlin, Beldame to Rachel Alexandra, and Seabiscuit to Cigar! It's mile-and-a-half main track is the largest in Thoroughbred racing. It first opened May 4, 1905 and is home to the Belmont Stakes and the Final Leg of The Triple Crown. It is known as "The Championship Track" because almost every major champion in racing history since the early 20th century has competed on this racecourse including all the Triple Crown winners.
